The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window with the address bar displaying <https://www.google.com/accounts/NewAccount?continue=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.google.com%2F%2F>. The page title is "Google Accounts - Mozilla Firefox". The main heading is "Google accounts" followed by "Create an Account". Below this, there is a link to "sign in here" for existing users. The section "Required information for Google account" contains several form fields: "Your current email address:" with a text input field and a note "e.g. myname@example.com. This will be used to sign-in to your account."; "Choose a password:" with a text input field, a "Password strength:" indicator, and a note "Minimum of 8 characters in length."; "Re-enter password:" with another text input field. There is a checkbox for "Stay signed in". A paragraph explains that creating a Google Account enables Web History, with a "Learn More" link and a checked checkbox for "Enable Web History.". Below this is a "Location:" dropdown menu set to "United States". A "Word Verification:" section asks to "Type the characters you see in the picture below." and shows a distorted image of the word "predotti". The browser's status bar at the bottom shows "Done" and "www.google.com".

4. You now have a Google account to use!
